

Would I Work For Me” Worksheet

The number one reason people thrive at work is their boss. It’s also the number one reason they quit.

-Gallup Organization Study

Instructions: Considering the quotation above, describe either one or both of the following situations:

1. Describe a specific situation when you had an immediate supervisor who inspired you to do your best, to thrive in your organization.

2. Describe a specific situation when you had an immediate supervisor who alienated you and led you to perform at less than your best or to leave.
